DANCING “SEVILLANAS” WITH YOUR SPANISH & AMERICAN FRIENDS

DON'T MISS OUT ON A ONCE IN A LIFETIME OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN THE POPULAR FLAMENCO DANCE "SEVILLANAS" FROM VICTOR BRAVO, ONE OF SPAIN'S BEST- KNOWN CONTEMPORARY FLAMENCO DANCERS.

Acclaimed internationally, Victor has danced with some of the best dance troupes of Spain and has performed in the United States, Japan, Korea, Russia, Africa, the Middle East and all over Eastern and Western Europe. Victor is Artistic Director, master teacher and performer in Seville's Flamenco Dance Museum where the "Sevillanas" classes are held.

Victor Bravo with Flamenco Coordinator Judy Cotter

Located in the ancient Jewish quarters of the city, the Flamenco Dance Museum is housed in an elegant 18th Century mansion constructed on the ruins of an ancient Roman temple. The mansion was built upon an urn containing the Bible, the Koran, the Talmud and Indian writings, as symbols of peace and understanding.

This is precisely the spirit of flamenco music and dance: an expression of universal emotion crossing time and cultures... A musical "gazpacho" of rhythms from ancient Crete, India, the Gypsies, Arabs, and Jews.

What better way to take part in Spanish culture than by learning the art of flamenco from a renowned professional? No other program in Seville offers such an experience.

Victor's classes are for both men and women. Don't worry about not being a "good dancer". We are all novices in this art of flamenco and Victor is a very patient teacher. His most consistent piece of advice is to "enjoy!!" Don't miss the opportunity to do something wonderful for yourself. It will become part of your Spanish DNA forever. And besides, it's fun!!!

The "Sevillanas" are given in six 1 ½ hour classes and one 1 hour class for a total of 10 hours of instruction EXCLUSIVELY FOR ICS STUDENTS.
