University of Hawaiʻi at Mānoa
Study Abroad Center

Program Summaries

(Summer Programs)

Angers, France
Annecy, France
Berlin, Germany
Dublin, Ireland
Florence, Italy
Kōbe, Japan
Lille, France
Mendoza, Argentina
Paris, France
Seville, Spain

Updated August 22, 2019
Host University: Université Catholique de l’Ouest www.uco.fr

Program focus: Intensive French Language, beginner to advanced levels (French 101, 102, 258, 259, 358, 359, 458, 459)
http://www.studyabroad.hawaii.edu/programs/summer/angers-france/

Program period: 4 weeks in July (even-numbered years)

Eligibility: UHM bargaining unit 7 members from Instructors to Rank 5 from any UHM department; must be on duty on campus the semester preceding the Study Abroad term. French knowledge is not a requirement.

Inquiries
Sarita Rai, Director: sarita@hawaii.edu

Resident Director’s responsibilities

Prior to Departure
- Student recruitment
- Advising
- Assisting with pre-departure cross-cultural training

On-site
- Mentoring UHM students and ensure student learning outcomes through contextual learning activities
- Monitoring academic quality and student support services at the host university
- On-site risk management
- Counseling and advising of students
- Complete professional development and/or research plan or curriculum development as approved by the Council on Study Abroad—based on applicant’s proposal.

Resident Director’s Remuneration
- Transportation: Honolulu-Angers-Honolulu
- Allowance: per day allowance not to exceed ($130 per day × number of days)
- Accommodations: faculty to pay for non-subsidized amount and arranged by program
Application materials
to be submitted electronically to uhmsac@hawaii.edu

1. Description of how students’ academic progress is monitored and a student/faculty Experiential Learning Plan with Student Learning Outcomes (5/09)

2. Applicant’s personal statement incorporating the following:
   a. why you would like to be a resident director
   b. how you would integrate academic and experiential components of the program
   c. the skills, abilities, and knowledge that would make you an effective Resident Faculty Director (9/10/08)

3. Applicant’s professional enrichment statement responding to the following: How might this Resident Directorship appointment enrich you as a faculty member at Mānoa in the next few years?

4. A confidential recommendation letter from your department chair; or college dean. The letter of recommendation must address your teaching ability, rapport with students, whether you have demonstrated ability to be responsible for and responsive to students’ multiple needs in an overseas environment, and your ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.

5. A summary of teaching evaluations (4 most recent consecutive semesters/summers that contains the summary ratings for each question on the evaluation and a list of all comments made by students. It is to be done by someone else in your department and attested by the person. Do not include raw evaluations, (4/24/07)

6. Curriculum vitae

7. Applicant’s student recruitment plan for the program

8. SAC Form 1
Annecy, France
BRIEF SUMMARY

Host University: Institut Français des Alpes
www.ifalpes.fr

Program focus: Intensive French Language, beginner to advanced levels (French 101, 102, 258, 259, 358, 359, 458, 459)
http://www.studyabroad.hawaii.edu/programs/summer/annecy-france/

Program period: 5 weeks (odd-numbered years)

Eligibility: UHM bargaining unit 7 members from Instructors to Rank 5 from any UHM department; must be on duty on campus the semester preceding the Study Abroad term. French knowledge is not a requirement.

Inquiries
Sarita Rai, Director: sarita@hawaii.edu

Resident Director’s responsibilities

Prior to Departure
- Student recruitment
- Advising
- Assisting with pre-departure cross-cultural training

On-site
- Mentoring UHM students and ensure student learning outcomes through contextual learning activities
- Monitoring academic quality and student support services at the host university
- On-site risk management
- Counseling and advising of students
- Complete professional development and/or research plan or curriculum development as approved by the Council on Study Abroad—based on applicant’s proposal.

Resident Director’s Remunerations
- Transportation: Honolulu-Annecy-Honolulu
- Allowance: per day allowance not to exceed ($130 per day × number of days)
- Accommodations: faculty to pay for non-subsidized amount and arranged by program
Application materials
to be submitted electronically to uhmsac@hawaii.edu

9. Description of how students’ academic progress is monitored and a student/faculty interaction Plan with Student Learning Outcomes
   (5/09)

10. Applicant’s personal statement incorporating the following:
    a. why you would like to be a resident director
    b. how you would integrate academic and experiential components of the program
    c. the skills, abilities, and knowledge that would make you an effective Resident Faculty Director
       (9/10/08)

11. Applicant’s professional enrichment statement responding to the following: How might this Resident Directorship appointment enrich you as a faculty member at Mānoa in the next few years?

12. A confidential recommendation letter from your department chair; or college dean.
    The letter of recommendation must address your teaching ability, rapport with students, whether you have demonstrated ability to be responsible for and responsive to students’ multiple needs in an overseas environment, and your ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.

13. A summary of teaching evaluations (4 most recent consecutive semesters/summers that contains the summary ratings for each question on the evaluation and a list of all comments made by students. It is to be done by someone else in your department and attested by the person. Do not include raw evaluations,
    (4/24/07)

14. Curriculum vitae

15. Applicant’s student recruitment plan for the program

16. SAC Form 1
Host institution: Free University of Berlin
www.fubis.org

Program focus: Intensive German language (beginner-advanced levels); Humanities, Social Science in English, and one 3-credit course in UHM Applicant’s Field in English. Classes are taught in English.
http://www.studyabroad.org/programs/summer/berlin-germany/

Program period: Arrive June 1st week; depart July 3rd week

Eligibility: UHM bargaining unit 7 members from Instructors to Rank 5 from any UHM department; must be on duty on campus the semester preceding the Study Abroad term. German knowledge is not a requirement.

Inquiries
Sarita Rai, Director: sarita@hawaii.edu

Resident Director’s responsibilities

Prior to Departure
- Student recruitment
- Advising
- Assisting with pre-departure cross-cultural training

On-site
- Mentoring UHM students and ensure student learning outcomes through contextual learning activities
- Monitoring academic quality and student support services at the host university
- On-site risk management
- Counseling and advising of students
- Complete professional development and/or research plan or curriculum development as approved by the Council on Study Abroad—based on applicant’s proposal.

Resident Director’s Remuneration
- Transportation: Honolulu-Berlin-Honolulu
- Allowance: per day allowance not to exceed ($130 per day × number of days)
- Accommodations
Application materials to be submitted electronically to uhmsac@hawaii.edu

1. Location-specific course proposal with Student Learning Outcomes (5-09)

2. Description of how students' academic progress is monitored and a student/faculty interaction Plan with Student Learning Outcomes (5-09)

3. Applicant’s personal statement incorporating the following:
   a. why you would like to be a resident director
   b. how you would integrate academic and experiential components of the program
   c. the skills, abilities, and knowledge that would make you an effective Resident Faculty Director (9/10/08)

4. Applicant’s professional enrichment statement responding to the following: How might this Resident Directorship appointment enrich you as a faculty member at Mānoa in the next few years?

5. A confidential recommendation letter from your department chair; or college dean. The letter of recommendation must address your teaching ability, rapport with students, whether you have demonstrated ability to be responsible for and responsive to students’ multiple needs in an overseas environment, and your ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.

6. A summary of teaching evaluations (4 most recent consecutive semesters/summers that contains the summary ratings for each question on the evaluation and a list of all comments made by students. It is to be done by someone else in your department and attested by the person. Do not include raw evaluations. (4/24/07)

7. Curriculum vitae

8. Applicant’s student recruitment plan for the program

9. SAC Form 1
Dublin, Ireland

BRIEF SUMMARY

Host institution: University College Dublin School of Nursing, Midwifery & Health Systems
www.nmhs.ucd.ie/

Program focus: Health Sciences (6 credits), Physics (8 credits) and Business Internship (6 credits)
http://www.studyabroad.hawaii.edu/programs/summer/dublin-ireland/

Program period:

- Architecture: June – July (6 weeks)
- Business Intern: June – August (9 weeks)
- Chemistry: June – August (9 weeks)
- Nursing and Public Health: June – July (4 weeks)
- Physics: May – July (6 weeks)

Eligibility: UHM bargaining unit 7 members from Instructors to Rank 5 from any UHM department; must be on duty on campus the semester preceding the Study Abroad term. Italian knowledge is not a requirement.

Inquiries
Sarita Rai, Director: sarita@hawaii.edu

Resident Director’s responsibilities

Prior to Departure
- Student recruitment
- Advising
- Assisting with pre-departure cross-cultural training

On-site
- Mentoring UHM students and ensure student learning outcomes through contextual learning activities
- Monitoring academic quality and student support services at the host university
- On-site risk management
- Counseling and advising of students
- Complete professional development and/or research plan or curriculum development as approved by the Council on Study Abroad—based on applicant’s proposal.

Resident Director’s remuneration
- Transportation: Honolulu-Dublin-Honolulu
- Allowance: per day allowance not to exceed ($130 per day × number of days)
- Accommodations: faculty to pay for non-subsidized amount and arranged by program
Application materials
to be submitted electronically to uhmsac@hawaii.edu

1. Description of how students’ academic progress is monitored and a student/faculty Experiential Learning Plan with Student Learning Outcomes (5/09)

2. Applicant’s personal statement incorporating the following:
   d. why you would like to be a resident director
   e. how you would integrate academic and experiential components of the program
   f. the skills, abilities, and knowledge that would make you an effective Resident Faculty Director (9/10/08)

3. Applicant’s professional enrichment statement responding to the following: How might this Resident Directorship appointment enrich you as a faculty member at Mānoa in the next few years?

4. A confidential recommendation letter from your department chair; or college dean. The letter of recommendation must address your teaching ability, rapport with students, whether you have demonstrated ability to be responsible for and responsive to students’ multiple needs in an overseas environment, and your ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.

5. A summary of teaching evaluations (4 most recent consecutive semesters/summers that contains the summary ratings for each question on the evaluation and a list of all comments made by students. It is to be done by someone else in your department and attested by the person. Do not include raw evaluations. (4/24/07)

6. Curriculum vitae

7. Applicant’s student recruitment plan for the program

8. SAC Form 1
BRIEF SUMMARY

Host institution: Scuola Lorenzo de’ Medici (LdM)
www.lorenzodemediici.it

Program focus: Italian language; courses in Art and History in English (Art 470B, History 339; Italian 160, 260, 360, 460)
http://www.studyabroad.hawaii.edu/programs/summer/florence-italy/

Program period: 5 weeks in June

Eligibility: UHM bargaining unit 7 members from Instructors to Rank 5 from any UHM department; must be on duty on campus the semester preceding the Study Abroad term. Italian knowledge is not a requirement.

Inquiries
Sarita Rai, Director: sarita@hawaii.edu

Resident Director’s responsibilities

Prior to Departure
- Student recruitment
- Advising
- Assisting with pre-departure cross-cultural training

On-site
- Mentoring UHM students and ensure student learning outcomes through contextual learning activities
- Monitoring academic quality and student support services at the host university
- On-site risk management
- Counseling and advising of students
- Complete professional development and/or research plan or curriculum development as approved by the Council on Study Abroad—based on applicant’s proposal.

Resident Director’s remuneration
- Transportation: Honolulu-Florence-Honolulu
- Allowance: per day allowance not to exceed ($130 per day × number of days)
- Accommodations: faculty to pay for non-subsidized amount and arranged by program
Application materials
to be submitted electronically to uhmsac@hawaii.edu

9. Description of how students’ academic progress is monitored and a student/faculty Experiential Learning Plan with Student Learning Outcomes (5-09)

10. Applicant’s personal statement incorporating the following:
   g. why you would like to be a resident director
   h. how you would integrate academic and experiential components of the program
   i. the skills, abilities, and knowledge that would make you an effective Resident Faculty Director (9/10/08)

11. Applicant’s professional enrichment statement responding to the following: How might this Resident Directorship appointment enrich you as a faculty member at Mānoa in the next few years?

12. A confidential recommendation letter from your department chair; or college dean.
   The letter of recommendation must address your teaching ability, rapport with students, whether you have demonstrated ability to be responsible for and responsive to students’ multiple needs in an overseas environment, and your ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.

13. A summary of teaching evaluations (4 most recent consecutive semesters/summers that contains the summary ratings for each question on the evaluation and a list of all comments made by students. It is to be done by someone else in your department and attested by the person. Do not include raw evaluations, (4/24/07)

14. Curriculum vitae

15. Applicant’s student recruitment plan for the program

16. SAC Form 1
Host institution: Kōnan University
www.adm.konan-u.ac.jp/kiec/english/#

Program focus: Intensive intermediate Japanese (Japanese 211-212)
http://www.studyabroad.hawaii.edu/programs/summer/kobe-japan/

Program period: June – July (5 weeks)

Eligibility: UHM bargaining unit 7 members from Instructors to Rank 5 from any UHM department; must be on duty on campus the semester preceding the Study Abroad term. Knowledge of language of the host country is not a requirement.

Inquiries
Sarita Rai, Director: sarita@hawaii.edu

Resident Director’s responsibilities

Prior to Departure
- Student recruitment
- Advising
- Assisting with pre-departure cross-cultural training

On-site
- Mentoring UHM students and ensure student learning outcomes through contextual learning activities
- Monitoring academic quality and student support services at the host university
- On-site risk management
- Counseling and advising of students
- Complete professional development and/or research plan or curriculum development as approved by the Council on Study Abroad—based on applicant’s proposal.

Resident Director’s remuneration
- Transportation: Honolulu-Kōbe-Honolulu
- Allowance: per day allowance not to exceed ($130 per day × number of days)
- Accommodations
Application materials

to be submitted electronically to uhmsac@hawaii.edu

1. Description of how students’ academic progress is monitored and a student/faculty Experiential Learning Plan with Student Learning Outcomes (5-09)

2. Applicant’s personal statement incorporating the following:
   a. why you would like to be a resident director
   b. how you would integrate academic and experiential components of the program
   c. the skills, abilities, and knowledge that would make you an effective Resident Faculty Director (9/10/08)

3. Applicant’s professional enrichment statement responding to the following: How might this Resident Directorship appointment enrich you as a faculty member at Mānoa in the next few years?

4. A confidential recommendation letter from your department chair; or college dean. The letter of recommendation must address your teaching ability, rapport with students, whether you have demonstrated ability to be responsible for and responsive to students’ multiple needs in an overseas environment, and your ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.

5. A summary of teaching evaluations (4 most recent consecutive semesters/summers that contains the summary ratings for each question on the evaluation and a list of all comments made by students. It is to be done by someone else in your department and attested by the person. Do not include raw evaluations, (4/24/07)

6. Curriculum vitae

7. Applicant’s student recruitment plan for the program

8. SAC Form 1
Lille, France

BRIEF SUMMARY

Host institution: The Catholic University of Lille www.univ-catholille.fr/studying-la-catho/european-summer-program.asp

Program focus: Engineering; and Computer Science http://www.studyabroad.hawaii.edu/programs/summer/lille-france/

Program period:
- Session I: 4 weeks in June
- Session II: 4 weeks June/July

Eligibility: UHM bargaining unit 7 members from Instructors to Rank 5 from any UHM department; must be on duty on campus the semester preceding the Study Abroad term. French knowledge is not a requirement.

Inquiries
Sarita Rai, Director: sarita@hawaii.edu

Resident Director’s responsibilities

Prior to Departure
- Student recruitment
- Advising
- Assisting with pre-departure cross-cultural training

On-site
- Mentoring UHM students and ensure student learning outcomes through contextual learning activities
- Monitoring academic quality and student support services at the host university
- On-site risk management
- Counseling and advising of students
- Complete professional development and/or research plan or curriculum development as approved by the Council on Study Abroad—based on applicant’s proposal.

Resident Director’s Remuneration
- Transportation: Honolulu-Lille-Honolulu
- Allowance: per day allowance not to exceed ($130 per day × number of days)
- Accommodations
Application materials
to be submitted electronically to uhmsac@hawaii.edu

1. Description of how students’ academic progress is monitored and a student/faculty Experiential Learning Plan with Student Learning Outcomes (5-09)

2. Applicant’s personal statement incorporating the following:
   a. why you would like to be a resident director
   b. how you would integrate academic and experiential components of the program
   c. the skills, abilities, and knowledge that would make you an effective Resident Faculty Director (9/10/08)

3. Applicant’s professional enrichment statement responding to the following: How might this Resident Directorship appointment enrich you as a faculty member at Mānoa in the next few years?

4. A confidential recommendation letter from your department chair; or college dean. The letter of recommendation must address your teaching ability, rapport with students, whether you have demonstrated ability to be responsible for and responsive to students’ multiple needs in an overseas environment, and your ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.

5. A summary of teaching evaluations (4 most recent consecutive semesters/summers that contains the summary ratings for each question on the evaluation and a list of all comments made by students. It is to be done by someone else in your department and attested by the person. Do not include raw evaluations. (4/24/07)

6. Curriculum vitae

7. Applicant’s student recruitment plan for the program

8. SAC Form 1
Host institution: Universidad Nacional de Cuyo
http://ffyl.uncu.edu.ar/cele/conte.htm

Program focus: Intensive Spanish beginner-advanced; Film/Literature, and one 3-credit course in UHM applicant’s field in English.
http://www.studyabroad.org/programs/summer/mendoza-argentina/

Program period: 6 weeks; late May to late June/early July

Eligibility: UHM bargaining unit 7 members from Instructors to Rank 5 from any UHM department; must be on duty on campus the semester preceding the Study Abroad term. Spanish knowledge is not a requirement.

Inquiries
Sarita Rai, Director: sarita@hawaii.edu

Resident Director’s responsibilities

Prior to Departure
- Student recruitment
- Advising
- Assisting with pre-departure cross-cultural training

On-site
- Mentoring UHM students and ensure student learning outcomes through contextual learning activities (please see sample Experiential Learning Plan, in Application Information)
- Monitoring academic quality and student support services at the host university
- On-site risk management
- Counseling and advising of students
- Complete professional development and/or research plan or curriculum development as approved by the Council on Study Abroad—based on applicant’s proposal.

Resident Director’s Remuneration
- Transportation: Honolulu-Mendoza-Honolulu
- Allowance: per day allowance not to exceed ($130 per day × number of days)
- Accommodation: host institution will arrange accommodation for all faculty Resident Directors. Those faculty members who do not teach are expected to contribute toward the cost of the apartment. Should a program offer free accommodations to the faculty without teaching responsibilities, the cost of housing will be deducted from the faculty member’s total remuneration.

Application materials to be submitted electronically to uhmsac@hawaii.edu
1. Location-specific course proposal with Student Learning Outcomes (5-09)

2. Description of how students' academic progress is monitored and a student/faculty interaction Plan with Student Learning Outcomes (5-09)

3. Applicant’s personal statement incorporating the following:
   a. why you would like to be a resident director
   b. how you would integrate academic and experiential components of the program
   c. the skills, abilities, and knowledge that would make you an effective Resident Faculty Director (9/10/08)

4. Applicant’s professional enrichment statement responding to the following: How might this Resident Directorship appointment enrich you as a faculty member at Mānoa in the next few years?

5. A confidential recommendation letter from your department chair; or college dean. The letter of recommendation must address your teaching ability, rapport with students, whether you have demonstrated ability to be responsible for and responsive to students' multiple needs in an overseas environment, and your ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.

6. A summary of teaching evaluations (4 most recent consecutive semesters/summers that contains the summary ratings for each question on the evaluation and a list of all comments made by students. It is to be done by someone else in your department and attested by the person. Do not include raw evaluations. (4/24/07)

7. Curriculum vitae

8. Applicant’s student recruitment plan for the program

9. SAC Form 1
Host institution: the Université Catholique de Lille, Institut d’Économie Scientifique Et de Gestion (IÉSEG) School of Management Summer International Academy
http://www.ieseg.fr/en/programs/international-summer-academy/

Program focus: International Relations, Business and one 3-credit Course in UHM applicant’s field in English
http://www.studyabroad.org/programs/summer/paris-france/

Program period: 6 weeks; early June to mid-July

Eligibility: UHM bargaining unit 7 members from Instructors to Rank 5 from any UHM department; must be on duty on campus the semester preceding the Study Abroad term. French knowledge is not a requirement.

Inquiries
Sarita Rai, Director: sarita@hawaii.edu

Resident Director’s responsibilities

Prior to Departure
- Student recruitment
- Advising
- Assisting with pre-departure cross-cultural training

On-site
- Mentoring UHM students and ensure student learning outcomes through contextual learning activities (please see sample Experiential Learning Plan, in Application Information)
- Monitoring academic quality and student support services at the host university
- On-site risk management
- Counseling and advising of students
- Complete professional development and/or research plan or curriculum development as approved by the Council on Study Abroad—based on applicant’s proposal.

Resident Director’s Remuneration
- Transportation: Honolulu-Paris-Honolulu
- Allowance: per day allowance not to exceed ($130 per day × number of days)
- Accommodations

Application materials to be submitted electronically to uhmsac@hawaii.edu

1. Location-specific course proposal with Student Learning Outcomes (5-09)
2. Description of how students’ academic progress is monitored and a student/faculty interaction Plan with Student Learning Outcomes (5-09)

3. Applicant’s personal statement incorporating the following:
   a. why you would like to be a resident director
   b. how you would integrate academic and experiential components of the program
   c. the skills, abilities, and knowledge that would make you an effective Resident Faculty Director (9/10/08)

4. Applicant’s professional enrichment statement responding to the following: How might this Resident Directorship appointment enrich you as a faculty member at Mānoa in the next few years?

5. A confidential recommendation letter from your department chair; or college dean. The letter of recommendation must address your teaching ability, rapport with students, whether you have demonstrated ability to be responsible for and responsive to students’ multiple needs in an overseas environment, and your ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.

6. A summary of teaching evaluations (4 most recent consecutive semesters/summers that contains the summary ratings for each question on the evaluation and a list of all comments made by students. It is to be done by someone else in your department and attested by the person. Do not include raw evaluations. (4/24/07)

7. Curriculum vitae

8. Applicant’s student recruitment plan for the program

9. SAC Form 1
Seville, Spain

BRIEF SUMMARY

Host institutions: The International College of Seville (ICS) www.ics-seville.org and Universidad de Sevilla www.us.es/

Program focus: Intensive Spanish Language, beginner to advanced levels (SPAN 101, 102, 258, 259, 358, 359, 458, 459); Intensive Arabic Language, beginner to advanced levels (ARAB 101, 102, 201, 202, 301, 302); http://www.studyabroad.hawaii.edu/programs/summer/seville-spain/

Program period: 4 weeks in June

Eligibility: UHM bargaining unit 7 members from Instructors to Rank 5 from any UHM department; must be on duty on campus the semester preceding the Study Abroad term. Knowledge of language of the host country is not a requirement.

Inquiries
Sarita Rai, Director: sarita@hawaii.edu

Resident Director’s responsibilities

Prior to Departure
- Student recruitment
- Advising
- Assisting with pre-departure cross-cultural training

On-site
- Mentoring UHM students and ensure student learning outcomes through contextual learning activities
- Monitoring academic quality and student support services at the host university
- On-site risk management
- Counseling and advising of students
- Complete professional development and/or research plan or curriculum development as approved by the Council on Study Abroad—based on applicant’s proposal.

Resident Director’s remuneration
- Transportation: Honolulu-Seville-Honolulu
- Allowance: per day allowance not to exceed ($130 per day × number of days)
- Accommodations: faculty to pay for non-subsidized amount and arranged by program
Application materials
to be submitted electronically to uhmsac@hawaii.edu

1. Description of how students’ academic progress is monitored and a student/faculty Experiential Learning Plan with Student Learning Outcomes (5-09)

2. Applicant’s personal statement incorporating the following:
   a. why you would like to be a resident director
   b. how you would integrate academic and experiential components of the program
   c. the skills, abilities, and knowledge that would make you an effective Resident Faculty Director (9/10/08)

3. Applicant’s professional enrichment statement responding to the following: How might this Resident Directorship appointment enrich you as a faculty member at Mānoa in the next few years?

4. A confidential recommendation letter from your department chair; or college dean. The letter of recommendation must address your teaching ability, rapport with students, whether you have demonstrated ability to be responsible for and responsive to students’ multiple needs in an overseas environment, and your ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.

5. A summary of teaching evaluations (4 most recent consecutive semesters/summers that contains the summary ratings for each question on the evaluation and a list of all comments made by students. It is to be done by someone else in your department and attested by the person. Do not include raw evaluations, (4/24/07)

6. Curriculum vitae

7. Applicant’s student recruitment plan for the program

8. SAC Form 1