Course Overview

General description of the course	The Korean Level 1 class is designed to help learners communicate systematically by integrating the four functions of language: speaking, listening, reading, and writing. We will provide learners with the opportunity to communicate in Korean through various themed lessons that learners can use in their daily life. The course content, including vocabulary and grammar, is designed to help learners achieve TOPIK level 1.
Descriptions of courses that align with this course	Courses such as Korean speaking, listening, reading, and writing will help learners further develop your communication skills in Korean, and courses on Korean culture will help learners understand the connection between the language and Korean culture by exploring the life and language of Koreans.

Objectives and Learning Outcomes

Objectives	Read and comprehend simple texts on topics, materials, themes, and functions that are frequently encountered in daily life. Speak, listen, read, and write about basic necessary materials and everyday topics such as food, shopping, getting around, transportation, hospitals, weather, date and time, and telephones. It is designed to achieve TOPIK level 1.
Learning effectiveness	Through this class, learners will be able to understand and acquire Korean culture in the language and communicate in Korean.
